

Digital Dialogue clients can join PSCU Financial Services

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (3/12/08)--Digital Dialogue's credit unions are eligible for membership in PSCU Financial Services, a credit union service organization, PSCU Financial announced Monday.

Digital Dialogue is a wholly owned subsidiary of PSCU Financial Services.

Under terms of the agreement, Digital Dialogue member credit unions can access credit card, debit, ATM, online bill payment, prepaid and small business solutions. Those who meet revenue requirements also can participate in the cooperative's annual patronage dividend.

The dividends are distributed to member-owners as tax-free dividends. At least 25% is paid annually in cash, while 75% is distributed in equity instruments. PSCU has issued more than $156 million in dividends since 1994.

PSCU serves more than 1,100 financial institutions nationwide.

Digital Dialogue operates two 24/7 call centers that specialize in member service support, new member acquisition, cross-selling and automated lending solutions for credit unions.
